imposting column. Arrived at the beautiful grove near town, (Mr. E. E. Cooke's) the Rev. Messrs. SMITH and North delivered short and appropriate addresses, after which the children partook of the sumptuous repast that had been pre pared for them, and with the control and direction of their good and kind teachers, and an all-wise and over ruling Providence, spent a most pleasant and agreeable day. At a reasonable hour in the evening, the procession returned to town, all gratified with what had occurred.

OUR CORPORATION has commenced in good earnest, the work of re-construction, and the honest and faithful delving of the laborer, will soon manifest that the waste places can be improved, and the seeming obstacles as to our own self-advancement removed. To accomplish even this, the co-operation of our people in effort, and a ready contribution of money so far as their taxes may be requisite, are altogether essential, and surely none can hesitate. The books of the corporation are now in the hands of Mr. D. M. SHEETZ, the officer of the Corporation, and will be expected to be paid on presentation, whilst the "Ordinance" of the Trustees as to nuisances generally, is published in our columns of to-day, and can be read by all whom it may con-

SALE OF REAL ESTATE .-- The lots advertised by N. S. White, Esq., belonging to the Estate of Mrs. Amelia Eichelberger dec,d were sold on last Saturday at an average of $134 per acre. This is 331 per. cent more than they were purchased at 6 years ago.

- We notice in the National Intelligencer, that our old friend and contemporary, D. SMITH EICHELBERGER of the Independent Democrat, offers his private residence for sale. This is an eligible property, and has been occupied by most of the distinguished habitues of Charlestown, under the old regime. Our neighbor vacates it, and leaves for a land not hedged by Boreman's pimps.
